Auto Victim, 3, Out Of Hospital

John Draper, three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Draper of 2601 Missouri avenue, has been released from Children's Hospital, St. Louis.

He had been hospitalized since being struck by a car Aug. 14 near a baseball diamond at 1815-17 Third street, Madison. He underwent skull surgery immediately after the accident.

His mother said the boy will stay with his paternal grandparents at 1830 Fifth street, Madison, about a week or so and then return home.

It is reported coming out of paralysis which had numbed the right side of his body but he still cannot walk alone. His left eye also is badly injured and doctors say the child has little, if any vision, in it.

Unable To Talk

The boy is unable to talk, his mother said.

John is taken to Barnes Hospital daily for therapy treatments. Doctors say it will be six months to a year before it is known whether any of the injuries are permanent.

The driver of the car, David C. Hoffman, 22, of Edwardsville, told Madison police the boy darted from in front of a parked car and he couldn't stop in time. The boy was thrown about six feet from the point of impact.

Hoffman was held for investigation by police but was not charged.

25th-Benton Accident

Autos driven by Raymond F. Hoffman, 56, of 1937 Benton street, and Jerome Stein, 36, of St. Louis were involved in a collision at 7:45 a.m. Friday at 25th and Adams streets. The left front of the Hoffman auto and the right front fender and light of Stein's car were damaged.

Mayor Davis, last Monday night in naming Atty. Lance Calis for the bond attorney position, said he had heard the special committee was out to beat his selection. He also had commented to the Press-Record before the meeting that if his selection was rejected, he would veto the committee's choice. Moerlein denied the committee had any such intention.

The council did vote down the appointment of Calis and at Tuesday night's adjourned meeting with the mayor out of town a committee presented the name of lawyer Horace Calis.

Showdown On Bond Attorney May Hit GC Council Tonight

A showdown is expected tonight at the "agendables" session of Granite City council members. Anticipated is another round in a dispute between Mayor Davis and the Special Pollution Committee, headed by Alderman Charles Moerlein, a former mayor.

Moerlein is expected to name a bond attorney to prepare detail work for a forthcoming bond issue for the state-ordered construction of a sewage treatment plant.

Bond Attorney Needed Now

Moerlein says the committee's work has progressed to a point where the bond attorney is needed to work with the fiscal agent on determining a recommendation of method of financing the project.

The engineering firm, he reported last week, has completed its preliminary work and will be ready for a detailed presentation to the council with recommendations by early next month.

Moerlein is concerned that preparations will not be ready in time to meet the Dec. 1 deadline set by the state Sanitary Water Board for the city to show proof of a bond issue for financing the sewage treatment plant to comply with its order to halt pollution of the Mississippi River.

Third Division Ready To Roll In UF Campaign

A third division—Special Gifts and Clubs—is ready for solicitation work in the 1964 United Fund campaign according to the division chairman, Homer A. Hubert.

Heading the Special Gifts Section will be Barry Loman, who has worked for the United Fund since its formation here. He worked in the Commercial Division in the 1961 and 1962 drives and was a captain last year in the section he now heads.

Under Loman will be six captains who will be enrolling additional workers. They are:

Six Captains

Mrs. Ida Handfield, a five-year veteran of the campaign in the Mitchell area; William Harris, in his second year in the division; Charles A. Meyer, secretary of the United Fund board of directors who worked in the Utilities Section in 1961 and in this section the past two campaigns; John Polson, in his first year in this section after serving in the Commercial Division since the 1961 drive; George Reeves, a Commercial Division worker in 1961 and 1962 who is serving his second year as a member of the fund's publicity committee; and Charles Reimers, also a Commercial worker in 1961-62 and now in his second year on this section.

Heading the Clubs Section is Gene Coe, who is executive of the Coburn Mounds Boy Scout Council—one of the 17 agencies helped by the local United Fund.

Letters In Mail

He has sent letters of solicitation to all area clubs and is forming a committee which will call on those who do not respond to the letters.

The campaign opens Oct. 15. Last year the Special Gifts and Clubs Division collected $2585, or 10.8% of their quota. The Special Gifts Section had $2020 (105.6%), the Clubs Section $65 (117.4%).

Venice Obtains Continuance In Closing Crossings

(Special from Springfield)

The Illinois Commerce Commission has granted a petition for continuance by the city of Venice in four cases which involve three railroads and two crossings in that city.

However, the hearing officer, James Parker, allowed the motion for a continuance contingent upon the city's filing a petition for a separation grade structure on a nearby intersection. This structure, an underpass, would take all traffic off the crossings involved in the four cases and would permit the city to close those crossings completely.

If the closings were effected, Harry Hartman, Venice city attorney, told Parker, the issues would be removed in the other four cases.

45 Days To File
A limit of 45 days is placed on the petition for continuance allowed by Parker.

Hartman presented the Venice city engineer, Edward N. Juneau, and Mayor John E. Lee of Venice, as witnesses to testify in support of his motion.

Both indicated the city of Venice planned an underpass of Broadway where that thoroughfare intersects with the railroad tracks near the McKinley Bridge.

Cost Set At $1,007,000
Estimated total cost of constructing that underpass of relocating Broadway to go under the tracks and relocating traffic signals, is $1,007,000, Juneau testified.

Of that total the state would pay $643,000 as its share of 90% of the construction of the underpass. The state would not contribute to any cost of relocating Broadway or relocating the signals.

Mayor Lee's testimony was much along the same line. He told of the city's cooperative steps already taken and planned.

To Close Two Crossings
With an underpass at Broadway and the railroad tracks, the city of Venice would then close Kerr and Main streets where there would be no crossing of tracks.

The city's petition also will list a division of cost on the Broadway project, between the city, the railroads and the state Division of Highways.

The railroads, each of whom had petition the ICC in the other cases are Gulf, Mobile and Ohio Railroad Co., Waterbury road Co. and the New York Central Railroad Co. The latter road was petitioner in two cases.

Mitchell Park Supporters Dispute Anonymous Handbill

An anonymous handbill urging defeat of the Mitchell park district proposal—distributed house-to-house last week—has caused considerable comment among supporters of the establishment of a district.

The printed handbills, unsigned by any individual or organization, were placed in mail boxes of residents who live in the 8.8 square-mile area of Chouteau township where the district is proposed.

Boyd Frealey, speaking for the Mitchell Park & Athletic Association, said the objection in the handbill that the neighborhood children to cross a highway to reach a park is against state laws is not true.

The complaints of sharp increase in taxes, Frealey said, also are false. He said there probably would be a small increase in taxes but that the maximum rate would permit only an eight-cent levy. That, he said, would be $8 a year on a piece of property assessed at $100.00.

"Many park districts," he added, "are able to operate without the full levy of eight cents."

Mitchell Area Park Candidates List Views, Background

(First of two articles)
Saturday is election day in Mitchell.

Residents will vote from 6 a.m. to 6 p.m. at the Old Parish Hall to (1) Approve or reject the proposed park district and (2) Vote on five commissioners who would govern the proposed district.

The park district, which would include 8.8 square miles of Chouteau township, has stirred much controversy. The drive for ratification of the district is being headed by the Mitchell Park & Athletic Association.

There have been no formal announcements of opposition but anonymous handbills calling for "no" votes were circulated last week. A public meeting on the proposal is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. tomorrow night at Mitchell School.

Eleven men have filed for candidacy in the commissioners' election. That part of the ballot, of course, will mean nothing if the proposal is turned down.

The deadline for withdrawal has passed and none of the candidates dropped out.

Following are notes on six of the 11 candidates. The remaining five will be spotlighted in Thursday's edition.

MARION SPARKS

913 East Chouteau Road
Owner of Sparks's Shell Service, he has held the offices of Chouteau township auditor, president of the Mitchell Fire Protection District, vice-president of the Mitchell Volunteer Fire Department and president of the PTA.

Sparks, 46, has a grade school education, is an active volunteer fireman and holds Red Cross First Aid card. He is a member of the Mitchell Athletic Club, scoutmaster of Cub Scout pack 41, is a merit badge counselor for the Boy Scouts and a member of the Illinois Association of Fire Protection District Directors.

Sparks says he believes every one should take part in a community's activities and that his many years of public service in Mitchell qualify him for election. If a park is not established immediately, he observes, "there will be no place left for one in a few years."

OTIS C. SCHOLEBO

4958 Nameoli Road
A self-employed operator of ice cream trucks and a tavern, Scholebo is a member of the Amvets, Odd Fellows Lodge and Eastern Star.

He was Randolph county clerk of the Illinois Democratic Club. He was a member of the police force there one year. Scholebo has eight grades of formal education, he said.

He says he has shown his community interest through sponsorship of baseball teams and other activities. Children, he comments, need a place to play so they aren't forced into the streets. Scholebo favors establishment of two or more neighborhood parks rather than one larger park.

ROY H. GREEN

112 Springfield avenue
Green, 55, is a pipefitter at Granite City Steel Co. and is a 1950 graduate of Granite City high school.

His civic activities include the presidency of the Mitchell-Chouteau township Kiwanis and chairmanship of Cub Scout Pack 41.

Green says he has always been concerned about recreation for boys and girls and believes the Mitchell park district will be a good thing for the people of Mitchell. He sees parks as a boon for people of all ages.

The district will be conducted on Saturday. On the same ballot will be the names of 11 candidates seeking the five posts of non-salaried commissioners.

A public meeting on the proposal is to be held tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Mitchell school. The candidates for commissioner posts are expected to attend.

Zone Appeals Hearings Set For Oct. 3 And 4

Hearings set for 1:30 p.m. Oct. 3 before the Madison county zoning board of appeals involve tracts in the Quad-Cities area. The public hearings will be held in the court house at Edwardsville.

Thomas Smith is requesting a variation in the zoning ordinance to set a mobile home at 136 Douglas avenue in Mitchell, while James Green is requesting permission to erect duplex dwellings on Lois 97 and 98 on William John court in the fourth addition to Wilshire Manor subdivision.

The hearings are conducted by Harry Taake, chairman of appeals board, in the conference room of the highway department in the court house.

On Oct. 4 the board of appeals will conduct a public hearing at 1:30 p.m. for a proposed amendment to the county zoning ordinance.

It is proposed to require each one-family detached dwelling to be located on a 9000 square foot lot, with a minimum width of 70 feet provided the lot is served by public water supply and sanitary sewers or by a community water and sewage system.

If an individual sewage disposal system is used, the minimum lot size is to be 10,000 square feet with a minimum width of 75 feet, and if in addition, there is no public water system, the minimum lot size is to be 12,000 square feet with a minimum width of 80 feet.

Drive Boots Wilson PTA Turnout To 250

Results of long-range planning to boost attendance at the Wilson grade school PTA were evident at the "kickoff" meeting Thursday night at which over 250 parents and teachers witnessed a flag ceremony conducted by Cub Packs 122 and 124.

After the PTA prayer by Joyce Campbell, Mrs. Rose Tolbert, president, called the meeting to order. Reports were submitted by Mrs. Barbara Miller, secretary, Mrs. Campbell, program chairman, and Mrs. Virginia Ahrens, membership chairman.

Mrs. Ahrens said 66 more parents had joined the PTA, reported that name pennants placed on a roster at the PTA meetings, and said she would lead a drive to boost attendance and growth.

Seventy-five additional persons joined during the evening. The room mother chairman, Mrs. Leigh Watson, asked for volunteers and announced that a reception for room mothers has been set for 7:30 p.m. Oct. 4.

Mrs. Joan Oram cited an urgent need for leaders of scout troops which may have to disband. Some of the previous leaders moved or are ill, she said.

Principal Ted Vreniek substituted for Bob Fitzgerald as safety chairman and urged all to drive carefully and watch for children in crosswalks. Purchase of patrol raincoats was approved.

Mrs. Marion Meyer, hospitality chairman, was applauded after her plea, "We need help."

As survey committee chairman, Mrs. Ahrens reported complete success of a drive held in late spring and early summer to learn what parents expected of the PTA. She said suggestions and ideas from the survey have been placed in effect.

Mrs. Robert M. Pope was elected to serve as treasurer of the unit for the 1963-64 year. A First National Bank bookkeeper, she previously served on the PTA board at McKinley school.

On behalf of the PTA, Mrs. Tolbert presented a banner to the principal to be used in conjunction with a monthly PTA book award for attendance.

Green satin fringed in white, it gives the school name and a circled "A" in appliqued white satin. Vreniek thanked the PTA and also Mrs. Watson for making it.

The school staff was introduced as an attendance count was taken. Mrs. Tolbert announced that Mrs. Carol Singleton's third grade room had won the right to display the banner for a month.

After a motion picture presented by the Granite City park district, the meeting was adjourned for refreshments of cake, punch and coffee. A three-tiered cake baked by Mrs. Jean Thompson featured a green football field, straw goal posts and a candy football.

RELIGION IS NOT OVERLOOKED in scouting. This is a typical Sunday scene at Camp Sunnen, Mo., showing the chapel in a quiet wooded area. There also is available to scouts the coveted God and Country Award.

Local Scouts Active In Character-Building Programs

Providing boys with a well-balanced year-round activity schedule is the task of the Boy Scouts of America in the Quad-Cities.

More than 1672 boys and their 750 volunteer leaders belong to the Uniwah district of the Council of the Quad-Cities, which includes the Quad-Cities, Namoki township and part of Chouteau township, is a United Fund-supported agency.

The Boy Scouts, made up of boys 11 to 14 years of age, hold weekly troop meetings to work on projects, learn skills and to discuss individual and troop problems and needs. Presently there are 661 boys enrolled in 25 Uniwah troops.

Services To Community Along with learning skills and working on projects, the local Boy Scouts provide a number of helpful services to the community. Scouters distribute voting reminders to residents before regular elections and help make posters for different programs such as safety and fire prevention campaigns. This spring, as in the past, the scouts collected special project bags of clothing and other discarded for Goodwill Industries, employers of the handicapped.

Another community program sponsored by the scouts is the first aid session held at the beginning of the year in which the fundamentals of wound dressing, splint application and other first aid practices are demonstrated.

During the summer many scouts leave the Quad-Cities and spend an educational and rewarding week at the Council's award-winning Camp Sunnen, Potosi, Mo. Here scouts camp in their own troop campsites, prepare their food over open stoves and take advantage of the spacious outdoors provided for them. The many troops are divided into patrols and each boy in the patrols is assigned duties that must be performed as a part of camp life. At Camp Sunnen scouts have the opportunity to acquire skills in nature, aquatics, handicrafts, cooking and scoutcraft.

In addition to the Boy Scouts, the local council also sponsors a Cub Scout and Explorer program.

Cub Scout Program The Cub Scout program for eight to ten-year old boys is basically the same as that for older boys except there is less emphasis on camping. About 887 boys are enrolled in the Uniwah district cub packs. Cub Scouts, nature love, plan hikes and plan for advancement to the Boy Scouts under the direction and guidance of full Scouts and Den Mothers.

olds receive vocational counseling, training in social skills and information on latest scientific developments. Explorers Posts in the district make many traditional excursions such as canoe trips in the Missouri Ozarks or camping at the Palmyra, N. Mex., Boy Scout Camp.

Work at the Council service center at 1338 Niedringhaus avenue—headed by Eugene Coe, council executive—includes making up general activity schedules for the district, contacting adult leaders and keeping them informed on the plans of the council and arranging for the incorporation of new scout units.

According to Coe, council headquarters also arrange meetings for the boys with civic leaders, surveys the effect of the general scouting program, and prepares for annual events such as the Scouting fair, council swimming meets and other aquatic programs and summer camping sessions at Sunnen.

For 1964 the United Fund has tentatively allocated $40,000 to the council—5% of its $2,500 budget.

Expenses covered in the budget are all at the council level. Each individual pack, troop and post is self-supporting.

Expenses on the council level include field service costs for five professional staffers, salaries and retirement provisions for an office staff of three, office rent, utility costs, office supplies and the training of individual leaders and volunteers for scouting work.

Half of the money has been paid and the remaining will be paid in six monthly installments.

Driver Sleeps As Slow Train Passes

It must have been a long freight train.

The driver of a truck took advantage of it to catch up on his sleep. When the train had passed, the truck was still stalled in the roadway at 13th street and Edwardsville road at 11 p.m. Thursday.

Granite City police were notified, woke him up and sent him on his way.

Four GC Men Drafted Friday; Quota Was 11

Four Granite City men were drafted into the armed forces Friday morning at the county selective service office in Edwardsville.

They were Robert F. Holton, Billie E. Anderson, William L. Austin and William E. Wagner, who reported from Millstadt where he now resides.

Originally, Friday's draft quota for the Quad-Cities was 11 men, but it was reduced due to changes in draft laws. Married men now are not to be drafted as long as single men are available.

From Edwardsville, the group went to a St. Louis examining center for assignment to training camps.

Also this month, 20 Quad-City men are to report next Friday for pre-induction physical examinations. Next month's quotas are for 27 men to undergo draft physicals on Oct. 3 and 16 are to be drafted Oct. 22.

Rehearing Sought On Madison Train Stop

(Special from Springfield)

The city of East St. Louis filed a petition with the Illinois Commerce Commission Friday for a rehearing of the commission's Sept. 4 order authorizing the Illinois Central Railroad to eliminate its stop of two passenger trains at its Relay depot station in East St. Louis.

The commission authorized a substitute stop at Madison, and the railroad planned to start the local service today.

The change effects the IC's Green Diamond between St. Louis and Chicago. It is scheduled to stop at the Madison station at about 3:10 p.m. from Chicago and about 3:10 p.m. from St. Louis, central standard time.

The railroad was authorized to eliminate its run into East St. Louis and planned to route the trains over the Merchants bridge here, using the west side high-line to approach Union Station in St. Louis.

The petition was filed by Robert Godfrey, East St. Louis corporation counsel.

About this question:
"It took an auto accident to cure me on cut-rate insurance. That's when I discovered my policy didn't pay when I drove a borrowed car—it didn't cover my medical costs—it didn't have an adjuster within 100 miles. Can my agency insure me with a continent-wide company, giving full coverage at standard rates?"

25 YEARS

The following items were taken from the files of the Granite City Press-Record.

THURSDAY, SEPT. 23, 1938

John Fedora, a student of aeronautics, will fly a gas model airplane he built in a contest with 100 other enthusiasts Sunday at Mitchell. The plane, "Ad Astra," took 75 hours to build at a cost of $25. It has a wing span of 10 feet, 3/4 inches; and air speed of 22 miles an hour.

A group of 20 persons, including 16 women, three men and a boy, engaged in a WPA canning project, is nearing the 5000 mark. The cannery is located in a brick building at 20th street and Washington avenue.

Unless more vegetables are donated, Supervisor Miss Perle Rosenberg said the cannery will have to close. The project also needs cans, since there is no provision for their purchase. The canned goods are distributed free to needy and aged, nourished children in the schools.

Just as the WPA project of the East Side Levee and Sanitary District was closing down due to lack of funds, the project received yesterday that presidential approval had been given to a request for continuing the work. 3000 men employed on the levee had been ordered back to work next Monday.

THE FORUM

CRASHES, BROKEN HOMES LINKED TO DRINKING

To the Editor:

To begin with, I would like to state how much I enjoy reading the Forum.

I am in complete agreement with the lady who thought a one-year sentence was not enough for a drunk driver who killed one of our local boys.

Similar incidents are repeated much too often. I myself was the victim of a drinking driver in an accident in which I was seriously injured. The law just ignored that the driver was drunk, and he was not arrested.

Why are irresponsible people allowed to injure and kill innocent people?

I definitely feel that any person involved in an accident who has been drinking should be dealt with severely, and not be allowed to "get off easily."

In my opinion, there is no excuse for such tragedies.

I hope everyone reading this who drinks alcohol recognizes what will stop and consider the things so. Statistics show that 20% to 30% of all highway accidents are due to drinking.

Not only does drinking cause accidents but, also, many homes suffer the disruptive and destructive effects of alcohol. It is the direct cause of many broken homes and blighted lives.

Abraham Lincoln said that alcohol is "a cancer of human society, eating out its vitality and threatening its destruction."

In closing, I would like to say that you are either your own keeper or destroyer. Let every respectable citizen stand up and be counted in the battle against the bottle.

MITCHELL NEEDS PLACE FOR CHILDREN TO PLAY

To the Editor:

We, the people of Mitchell, need a park for our children.

I'm a mother of three children and I would rather see my taxes go from $5 to $10 than see my children play in the streets.

Site On Maryville Road Can Be A Valuable Asset To GC Park System

Just as acquisition of land by a proposed Mitchell park district makes sense, the Granite City park district is wise in planning to buy a 20-acre park site on Maryville road opposite the Glenview subdivision.

While expanding its indoor and outdoor recreational program with the cooperation of the school system, the park district has been limited until now to only one park of major size.

In view of the rapid growth to the east, and the virtual certainty that growth will continue, the proposed 74x1175-foot tract could prove to be a "lifesaver" in avoiding an impossibly heavy burden on Wilson Park.

The new site may be on the edge of town at present, but the city can recall the fact that Wilson Park and Granite City high school were thought of as being located far out "in the country."

Delegates Entitled Only To Their Actual Expenses

Approval by Granite City aldermen last week of $100-per-man Illinois Municipal League meeting expenses calls attention to a common but faulty practice of many government bodies. The provision of flat amounts for officials or employees attending out-of-town conventions.

The procedure is unsound because the only justification for using tax funds in such cases is an actual expense encountered while serving as an official representative of the taxing agency.

Since all proper costs can be met legitimately from the municipal coffers, it is hard to see why there should be any limit on the amount of expense.

It, of course, is simpler to dole out uniform amounts to conference delegates. But just because it is an easier, lazier approach does not make it any more justifiable. Or even $1—for bills that may never have existed.

Has Speed Reading Champ Tried The Press-Record?

We do not wish to be overly skeptical, but we remain unconvinced that a 17-year-old Pittsburgh boy can read 10,000 words a minute, soaring to 30,000 and 40,000 a minute on occasion.

Speed reading undoubtedly is a valuable tool, but we doubt that anyone could absorb the information in 50 newspaper columns within the space of 60 seconds—at least, not if those columns were as filled with facts, figures and names as those in the Press-Record.

Future Belongs To Those Who Study, Read And Think

The Business-Industry-Agriculture dinner speaker's assertion that the world's entire stock of knowledge will be doubled in the next decade poses a challenge to adults as well as students.

Through formal courses, meaningful reading and enlightened discussion, each person will need to try harder than in the past to keep his knowledge current. More than ever before in history, it will not be a question of what he knows, accomplished or learned in the past, but what he knows and can do in terms of present and anticipated conditions.

As noted by Dr. Claar, agriculture extension director of the University of Illinois, whether Quad-Cityans and others are growing in knowledge and understanding will affect not only their own success and happiness but also the future of their nation and world.

When we take an active interest in life, we are still proud of today, and for daily ways that may have been equivalent to today's hourly rates.

Today, youngsters need a tax-supported bus or dad's car to get to their own—to move from one street corner to the other. Otherwise, Junior is going delinquent. Where is all this going to lead to? Look at television and you get the answer, worldwide.

At the turn of the century the work was "Pray and work so you don't get into temptation." Work we had, after graduation with an eighth grade diploma.

Our apprenticeship in a blacksmith shop was waiting for us, and a ten-pound sledge hammer was waiting for us. We took our apprenticeship—six-footers with muscles like a bear. In April we graduated. Two years later we were working already from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. Tired? Yes, but happy.

There may be people who can afford to pay for a park district. There may also be families where husband and wife both make good money and don't feel the pinch. My advice is to ask them pay for their children's education and don't burden the taxpayer with it. It is not fair. Give us education by other means.

With this in mind, I shall go to the polling place. We may be able to get a better deal, but like, like the poet Schiller would still possess our precious vote to defeat the park district proposition. We hope we have company in doing so.

No Need To Wait In Revising Closing Law

Reports that Madison's tavern closing hour will be amended if East St. Louis takes similar action are interesting. We hope both do so, in the interest of uniformity, but will not interfere with late-at-night law enforcement problems from neighboring areas.

But since when has Madison county had to look to St. Clair county for leadership? So many municipalities are so much more interested in what have enacted 1 a.m. closing laws that it should not be necessary for Madison, East St. Louis or Collinsville to adopt a "wait and see" attitude.

I would unshrink my mule from the dovel shovels and put the shovel on the hammer on the back of Ol' Joe and head toward the barn.

When we got to the barn lot, my father would tell my brother, Bob, to go to the house for the milk can and for me to jump on Phil and run up on the hill and find the cattle.

As I went up the hill to find the cattle I would always find something more.

And the interest shown by the children symbolizes the close link between UF activities and the younger generation. Because of the activities which each of us will aid with our contributions next month, our children and grandchildren will have a better place in which to begin their progress toward full, enjoyable and useful lives.

The Joys Of Parenthood

—Multiplied By Five

Anyone who has cared for an infant during its formative years can visualize the responsibilities created by multiple births—the responsibility, lost sleep and downright hard work associated with one child suddenly multiplied by two, three, four, or perhaps five.

Quintuplets occur so rarely that any real expectation must be considered remote, but the thought of a family of five children is not a new idea, on the possibility that the joy also would be multiplied.

The unspoken hopes of many couples will hardly be diminished by the birth in Aberdeen, S. D. this month of the first U. S. quintuplets.

With the Aberdeen Chamber of Commerce serving as a clearing house, the family of seven-going-on-12 already has been flooded with gifts that include a new house, a college education fund, food, hair-cuts, clothing, appliances, toys and even a year's beauty care for the mother.

With all the interest that has centered on the South Dakota city, one wonders what will happen if the plot of a movie in the 1940s, Miracle of Morgan's Creek, ever comes true—the simultaneous birth of six youngsters.

Fine Public Aid Goal But Crime

Commission Also Deserves Support

Gov. Kerner set a worthy goal last week in telling the new Illinois Department of Public Aid that it should direct every able-bodied adult on public aid into a job or into training that will soon equip him or her for work. He now has direct supervision of the program and should be able to see to it that this policy is carried out.

Less sound approach is being taken to the new Illinois Crime Commission. One of the goals has been named to the group, its House sponsor has been omitted entirely, its chief sponsor has been appointed the chairmanship, there was no public hearing, and the commission, the usual procedure on calling for a first meeting was altered and there are indications that the group could fall under political domination and be ineffective.

The new public aid department is off to a good start. It would be tragic if the crime commission does not function equally as well, for Illinois has a real crime problem—sinister influences that match or exceed those anywhere in the nation.

It is fine to think you are usually right, as long as you keep it a secret.

BACKS MITCHELL PARK FOR BETTER COMMUNITY

To the Editor:

After reading the quite imaginative article in last Monday's Press-Record, I too, feel compelled to discuss some of the hasty remarks concerning the new Mitchell Park.

Our appreciation in the American history books is that when a few Americans go together, they help to establish a better society for all of us.

If he thinks such a exclusive club, then why are there community-minded leaders running as candidates for the office of park commissioner?

I would like to relate back to a previous Press-Record publication that the park district is interested in running for the office of park commissioner could be a petition. This was open to anyone within the set boundaries of the park district.

He could have easily joined this so called exclusive club, thereby by filing a petition for the non-salaried office. If he would like to become informed about the park district taxes, he would find out that the taxes go directly back to the park district and only to the park district.

As a former resident of Granite City, he may recall what the Lincoln Place Center has brought to the people and will continue doing for the future. The kinds of community programs that insure more adequate and continuous recreational facilities that help promote a more wholesome community.

He complains, whereas has his Mitchell residents and help to make this a better community.

PARK DISTRICT WOULD AID MITCHELL CHILDREN

To the Editor:

The Sept. 16 Forum writer can find nothing better to do, so he has tax money gone? Evidently he has missed a few issues of the Press-Record. I'm quite sure he would check he could find announcements of the township meeting. This is where I found out about it.

There is not one park project in the township. The Mitchell Athletic Association has worked hard for several years to provide a playground for our children. The park district would benefit all of us. You could see the corner of your tax money is going.

There are 15 children here in Granite City that have been in the corner of your tax money is going. How they could benefit by the establishment of a park in the township.

I sincerely urge every parent

THE PASTOR SPEAKS

CHAPLAIN BILLY H. COX

GRANITE CITY ARMY POST

As we would come to the end of the corn row, my father would stand in the east, as the sheep quietly grazed in the meadow below and as the summer wind on the grass brought boyish cheers, there was a feeling in my heart that God was near and that He was good. Thousands of God would well up in my heart and I would attempt to say and sing praises to Him.

It was there that Arkansas hilltop that God revealed himself to me, for which I am beholden.

It is true—God is near and God is good. He can speak to us on a hilltop or behind a desk. He can take us as we are and make us what we ought to be.

Let us all pray that God will reveal Himself to us, now.

Action Can Be Taken At Local Level To Attract New Payrolls

By WAYNE A. JOHNSTON

President, Illinois Central Railroad and Chairman, Economic Development Committee, Illinois State Chamber of Commerce (First of a Series)

Illinois cities are currently engaged in a competitive battle with other localities in an effort to get their share of new business and industry. By way of having far-reaching effects in all parts of the state.

The degree to which each city succeeds or fails will be determined largely by efforts within the community.

Reasons For Competing
Success in attracting new industries and encouraging expansion of firms presently located in Illinois is essential if we are to:

1. Have enough jobs to take care of our present unemployed, young people being attracted to the city by those displaced by automation.

2. Reduce unemployment costs to business and cut welfare costs to the taxpayer.

3. Provide the tax base needed for essential governmental services.

We enter the competitive arena of industrial development with a long list of assets in our favor, including central location, unparalleled transportation system, diversified economy geared to production of consumer needs, generally favorable labor market, fine universities and good state business climate.

These assets will have to be exploited to the maximum, however, if we are to meet the sharpened efforts of others.

Illinois' past history of industrial success would indicate that we have done quite well in the past. The fact that private business in the state currently provides over four million jobs is proof of this.

Four Sites Chosen
This job-creating ability of Illinois business has enabled us to attract the state of unemployment below the national average and below the rate of such states as Pennsylvania, Michigan and Ohio.

The management of these "Big Four" firms are just a few of those that have decided recently that an Illinois city provides the best possible location for new branch plants: Air Reduction Sales Co., East Alton; International Paper Co., Freeport; Goodyear Rubber Co., Rockford; Armour & Co., Aurora; Standard Brands, Inc., Elmhurst; National Carbide Co., Elgin; Firestone Tire and Rubber Co., Decatur.

This multi-million dollar vote of confidence in Illinois as a site for new industry should provide impetus and encouragement to other areas.

Firms Here Sought Elsewhere
One frequently overlooked fact is that industry currently located in Illinois is being courted constantly by a determined band of salesmen from other parts of the country. In effect, then, the price of the present industry is a highly attractive prize to those seeking new plants for their business.

Consequently, our first job is to keep our existing industry in place.

In the proposed park area, stop and think. Is it worth $5 to $5 per year to have a decent place for your children to play?

The answer is yes. For the park district. If you want more information, attend the public hearing on Tuesday, Sept. 24, 7:30 p.m. at the Mitchell school gym.

FOLLOWED BY TRAGEDY

To the Editor:

Just recently Governor Wallace of Alabama was playing a game on television boasting of the great amount of mail he was receiving from the country in support of his segregationist policies.

In particular, he called attention to the fact that he had received from Granite City, Ill., with $5 to help him fight the NAACP.

It was that a Negro church in Birmingham has been bombed.

Group Headed By Morgan Includes 119 Authorities

The state organization headed by David Morgan, executive director of the Granite City Housing Authority, is made up of housing authorities throughout Illinois.

Morgan, who was elected president of the Illinois Association of Redevelopment Authorities, said upon his return to his local office Friday that there are 119 such authorities in the state of which about 90 are active participants.

The annual meeting for the election was held in Springfield, and the next annual meeting will be called in October 1964, with Morgan presiding.

The group meets with officials of the Public Housing Administration and the Federal Housing and Home Finance Agency. Many of its activities deal with urban renewal programs.

The city of Granite City has been considering for several years the launching of an urban renewal program aided with federal funds for redevelopment of blighted areas.

2 GC Finance Houses Sued For Back Taxes

The other suit alleges that Madison County Federal owes $463 for 1953 and $507 for 1954, and that the total due, including interest, penalties and costs, is $2,540.

BACK ON THE TRACK—hair's the expression used by firemen when an engine returns to the station and is ready for another run. The city's newest pump—a $25,000 job—left the main station on June 13 to answer a rainy-day fire alarm and because of an accident at Madison avenue and Nameoki road had to be completely rebuilt. It was "back on the track" Thursday afternoon. Fire Chief Elijah King is shown giving it the once over.
